- N/A

- great TA

- I believe that based off the professors standards for the class and expectations for the TA's there was not much interaction with the TA and the class throughout the discussions each week. I do not blame my TA since they tried to do their best to get through all the questions in order to give us answers to the homework since answers were not made available online with the professor. Overall they did make an attempt to do the best they could with the situation.
